Pérez & Bennett Open Equitation Division Champions Crowned

Junior riders were welcomed back to the Alltech Arena Saturday to finish competition in their respective equitation divisions, presented by Cindi Pérez and Anne Bennett. In the end, five riders etched their name in National Horse Show history as they exited the arena with a tri-color on the bridle.

Bobby Murphy (USA) set a technical track asking riders to demonstrate the equitation skills they developed throughout the year. The course was reflective of the riders' ability to adjust their horse's canter starting with an open five-stride line away from the gate, to a quick, collected roll-back turn and related bending line. Murphy's track was set to prepare the young, promising riders for Sunday's coveted Hamel Family Foundation 3'3" Equitation Championship.

In the Pérez & Bennett Open Equitation 14 and Under division, Ruby Calger held onto the lead throughout the weekend. Laying down a picturesque equitation round on day two, she secured championship honors. Elizabeth Rinehart topped the final over fences round of the section to move up the leaderboard and earn the reserve championship.

Morgan Mcarthy was crowned champion of section A of the Pérez & Bennett Open Equitation 14-15 division aboard Dimacho, after winning first in the over fences round early Saturday morning. In reserve was Lillian Muzzy and MZ Farms LLC's Baldeur. In section B, Londyn Samalska secured top honors after riding to a first and second in both over fences classes. Lillian Soroken took reserve champion with DiCaprio 3, after winning first in the over fences phase.

The final age group of the day, the 16-17 Pérez & Bennett Open Equitation section A, ended with Olivia Pileggi and Olivia Roure-Singh in a tie for the champion ribbon. Pileggi piloted Heather Acker's Keynote to the blue ribbon in the first round of over fences Friday, while Roure-Singh rode Emil Spadone's Dilem to the win in the second round over fences, ultimately securing their tie in the winner's circle.

"I am so grateful for the opportunity to be here. It feels like a dream come true," commented Pileggi. "When I first started riding, all I wanted to do was compete at big shows like these."

In the B section, Natalie Groulx claimed top honors aboard Lambada, a 13-year-old Swedish Warmblood Gelding owned by Kate Abajian, after winning the second over fences class and accumulating 12 points for the tri-color. Juliette Earley was named reserve champion of the division with Doris Leventhal's Swedish Warmblood gelding, Nils On.

The National Horse Show is proud to honor all grooms.
Dedicated individuals we all depend on for their endless hours of devotion to our horses!

NHS GROOM OF THE DAY

Gustavo is dedicated to the care of our horses more than any other person I know. He will work days on end with no sleep just to be sure that our horses are happy, healthy, and well taken care of. He always has a smile on his face and cookies for our horses at the out gate! Gusti is beyond well deserving of this recognition, and I would love for him to hear our appreciation for him on an even bigger scale. "Thank you" doesn't go nearly far enough to show our appreciation and respect for him, his hard work, cheerful personality, and dedication to our horses.

Standing Tall

Started in 2019 by Michelle Cannon out of Wildwood Stables in Crossville, Tennessee, Standing Tall Life Skills is a youth therapy program designed to provide children in the greater Crossville community with the important life skills needed to empower both themselves and their peers. The organization operates as a first-line resource, utilizing a network of mentors to help children who are experiencing social and emotional issues in Cumberland county, at no cost to those who seek out their resources. With the goal of teaching children the fundamentals of social responsibility, Standing Tall Life Skills goes above and beyond to provide a safe and empowering environment where kids can be kids, while embracing their identity and gaining the social skills needed to be leaders of tomorrow.

"This program recognized a need for the healing effects of horses on traumatized children," said Pat Kane, STLS' Volunteer Coordinator. "We service the children in our community who have come from broken homes and difficult social settings. Many of the children have low self esteem, so they come to the program and learn tangible life skills by working with our mentors and horses. Over the course of six weeks, they go from never having been around a horse to learning to riding in an arena with horses that have been worked with just for this purpose. The changes that come about with the kids...you know, they end up grinning from ear to ear."

"So many of our kids come back as volunteers themselves, mentoring the next group of kids. We have a leadership program that they can partake in to come back as student mentors. The parents say, 'I can't believe how much better we all get along at home because of the change in attitude from having gone through the program.' It transitions to their home life - to their relationship with siblings to their performance in school. They learn to hold their head up, to stand up for themselves - standing tall is just what it's all about."
