Adult Amateur Equitation Divisions Presented by Cindi Perez and Anne Bennett Kick Off Opening Day

Wednesday morning witnessed the kickoff to the 2022 National Horse Show. The Alltech Arena played host to a myriad of adult equitation divisions, sponsored by NHS Vice President Cindi Perez and Anne Bennett.

“One of the things I love about sponsoring these classes is it gives people the opportunity to get in the ring before their finals round,” said Perez, who later presented her longtime friend, Margrethe Monkdale, with a blue ribbon in the 25 + over fences division. “Peggy [Margrethe] and I have known each other since 2006, when I first started showing on the California A circuit. It was so special to give a blue ribbon to somebody I consider to be a great friend - that was amazing.”

In section A of the 18-24 division, Ryan Kenny and High Kaliber, a 7-year-old Zangersheide gelding owned by Caroline Moore, took the tri-color as champion. The pair picked up a win and second place in the two over fences rounds. Reserve Champion was awarded to Kelly Doherty and Coubertin, an 11-year-old Danish Warmblood gelding owned by Jaime Sisskind.

In section B of the 18-24 division, Anna Koenig and her 8-year-old Holsteiner gelding, Constantin were named Champion after winning both over fences rounds. Reserve went to Catherine Kramer aboard Audi 2000 Z, a 9-year-old Zangersheide gelding owned by North Run & Kadley Farms.

In section A of the 25 and over division, Margrethe Monkdale was named champion with Look At Me, a 10-year-old Oldenburg gelding owned by Round Meadow Farm, LLC, after placing first in the over fences class and third in the flat. Tied for Reserve Champion was Sara Ladley aboard Merci Balou, her 6-year-old Belgian Warmblood gelding, and Kelsey Leerkes with Betty Braemoore, a 12-year-old Oldenburg mare owned by Armand Chenelle.

In section B of the 25 and over division, Julie Hogan nabbed the final tri-color of the day aboard Ferndale, a 9-year-old Danish Warmblood gelding owned by Avery Jansen, after winning first in the over fences section and second in the flat. Reserve Champion went to Jeanine Cash and Boccaccio, a 14-year-old Rhinelander gelding owned by Colin Cash.
