

National Horse Show Foundation Non-Pro Hunter Rider Application

The Non-Pro Hunter Rider Grant is to support upcoming hunter riders with financial aid that will provide the ability to further their show experience, mentorship, and training. If allotted the grant, riders will be required to submit receipts and a description of how they used their grant money to further their riding career.

Please use this form to gather and save your answers. All applications must be submitted via email to amandapollack11@gmail.com by October 15th. Applications will be reviewed by our Endowment Committee Members and applicants will be notified via email in October on the status of their application.
